HELP IS ON THE WAY FOR NEW REALTORS

(ATLANTA) Popular author and sales coach Brian Hilliard has recently launched a new Web site designed to help new real estate agents build their business in less than 90 days. The site, www.newagentwantsmoresales.com, offers timely articles and other resources for real estate agents who are looking to get more leads and more listings.

According to a recent survey conducted by the National Association of Realtors, over 50% of new real estate agents quit within the first year due to burnout and basic lack of support. "They graduate real estate school, get their licence, then find a broker," explains Hilliard. "So the bottom line is there is no one out there helping them."

The site features Hilliard's articles from "Realty Times", books, and a special "high-octane sales pak" which promises to increase their business in less than 90 days.

"I'm hopeful that new real estate agents will use the tips on this site," says Hilliard, "And I'm confident that they will see an increase in their business if they do."

Brian Hilliard is a noted speaker and author "Networking Like a Pro!", and "How to Talk so Others Will Listen: for Realtors", and founder of Agito Consulting. For more information, please contact Trish Alcock at (678) 313-5601 or visit www.newagentwantsmoresales.com.
